To the San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

We have owned B & W Service Center since 1978 and have employed San Franciscans for many years. We have been providing quality auto service to many San Franciscans in the Mission District and throughout the City as well.

We feel the ban on yellow pages would unfairly limit the exposure of our business, especially to some of the older residents of San Francisco. These people tend not to be online.

B & W Service Center